Records and fields not specifically mentioned may be considered optional. It is your responsibility to resubmit corrected files in an acceptable format within 45 days. However, the original submission is considered a timely filing if it was postmarked by January 31. You must keep a copy, or be able to reconstruct the data, for 5 years after the due date of the report.

Requirements for splitting large files

There is a file submission constraint allowing a maximum of 30,000 RW - Employee Wage Records and 30,000 RS – State Wage Records. Therefore, any file resulting in more than either 30,000 RW or 30,000 RS records must be split into smaller files. Each of the split files must contain the following required record types and follow the specifications for the EFW2 format unless otherwise specified in this West Virginia specification book.

1 RA Record - Submitter Record (required)

- Must be the first data record on each split file

1 or more RE Record - Employer Record (required)

- The first RE record must follow the RA record in each split file
- Following the last RS record for the employer, create an RT and RV record and then either the:
 - RE Record for the next employer in the split file submission; or
 - RF record if this is the last report in the split file submission

1 or more RW Record - Employee Wage Record (required)

- Following each RE record, include the RW and RS records for that RE record
- There is a file size constraint allowing a maximum of 30,000 RW records per file submission; If you do not split files allowing 30,000 or less RW records per file, your submission will error and not be processed

1 or more RS Record - State Wage Record (required)

- There is a file size constraint allowing a maximum of 30,000 RS records per file submission; If you do not split files allowing 30,000 or less RS records per file, your submission will error and not be processed
- The RS Record should follow the related RW Record
- If there are multiple Wage Records for an employee, include each State Wage Record for the employee immediately after the related RW Record

1 or more RT Record - Total Record (required)

- 1 RT Record must be generated for each RE Record within each split file
- If you are splitting the file and multiple files include RS records for the same employer, the totals on the RT Record should represent the total for the individual split file submission in which it is contained. This will be a partial total for the employer.

1 or more RV Record - State Total Record (required)

- The RV Record must be generated for each RE Record within each split file
- If you are splitting the file and multiple files include RS records for the same employer, the totals on the RV Record should represent the total for the employer across split file submissions. The RV Record represents the WV/IT-103 and will result in duplicate RV Records for the same employer (1 for each split file that contains RS records for that employer). However, the system will file the WV/IT-103 once for each employer, even though multiple RV Records will be received.

1 RF - Final Record (required for split files)

- Must be the last record on the split file
- Must appear only once on each split file
- Must contain the total number of RW records on the split file
